

CSFB Global Business Center

Credit Suisse First Boston (CSFB), a leading global investment bank, is pleased to announce that it will be opening a Global Business Center in Raleigh-Durham, North Carolina. The Global Business Center will provide vital business continuity, information technology and operations services for our firm and its clients. We expect the Global Business Center to open in early 2005.

CSFB is pleased to be coming to the Raleigh-Durham area and looks forward to having a long-standing presence in the community. CSFB has made a major commitment to build and expand its applications development, information technology and operations functions in the Raleigh-Durham area.

To fulfill this commitment, CSFB expects to be hiring people to fill positions at the Global Business Center in addition to relocating some current employees to the facility. For those who may be interested in positions at CSFB's Global Business Center, please visit our Global Business Center Career Opportunities page.
